

We need a broader range of viewpoints than we receive with single companies owning both newspapers and broadcast stations. Please continue to ban cross-ownership of media, then broaden the number of independent media owners. I find it quite alarming how few companies own most of our information sources.